With the geographical situation where the families' income in the community comes largely from farming and small business, my school has to face with the problems of poor students' drop - out - of school. Particularly in rural areas, many students have inadequate access to the internet

Contributing to the success of the school is partly the efforts of school's English department. The English teachers dedicate to teaching students in the areas of Listening, Speaking, Reading and Writing with the appropriate methodology.

and supplies they need. Transportation is also a challenge for those who forced to travel on the long rough roads to school with the dream to finish their education. Despite the difficulties, the school tried its best to reach the aims of the school years, and as a result, it was

Teachers of English Department

As in most of suburban schools in the region, English is considered a hard subject to the majority of the students. To create students' motivation in studying English and specially speaking skill, some activities have been taken in the school and in the city.

First, the English Speaking Club

This activity is annually held in the school with a variety of useful topics. It is a playground to give students an opportunity to practise speaking English with the teachers and students and make more friends. In each club, exciting games and attractive awards with interesting speaking activities is prior. It attracts more than 150 students in the school for each time.

Second, the English Speaking contests

Since 2011, The contest has been held every year by the Department of Education & Training of Cantho City cooperating with Pacific College. It is highly appreciated by people in Cantho City and in Mekong Delta for its well-organized speaking English Festival. Thoi Long High School was a participant with great enthusiasm and got some achievements in the contests.

Third, the Internet Olympic of English contests

It is an activity attracting many students to take part in every year. The students enjoy doing the English tasks on the Internet and learn more English through taking part in the contests. Many students won the provincial contests every year. Among them, some students won the National Contest. It is enough for us to be proud of our school.

Lastly, the thing we want to say is that our school has made real efforts to reach the “Nationally Recognized Level” in late 2015. With the hope to fulfill our qualifications, our school would like to make friends with schools in the country to co-operate as well as to share some experiences in teaching and learning. If you have a chance to come to Long H ng Ward, O Mon District, Cantho City, please save some time visiting our school. You will be warmly welcomed and your presence is a great honor to our school”.
